Gentlemen:

We appreciated very much having you teach the Institute on Micrographics for the Southeastern Chapter, American Association of Law Libraries, at the Sheraton Biltmore in Atlanta, May 25-26, 1975. All three of you did an outstanding job and I want to express thanks from the Southeastern Chapter and the institute participants.

I do not have any specific item of criticism and would recommend your presentation for people who are getting into micrographics without the necessary technical knowledge. You gave us a lot of good down-to-earth information which will be useful to us. Professors Rick Surles and Edwin Schroeder did a good job in getting you all to participate in the institute. I firmly believe that it was worth the time and money each of us spent.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
President
